

THE GARRETT PARK FILM SOCIETY

An early Valentine Party!

What: COMO AGUA PARA CHOCOLATE, LIKE WATER FOR CHOCOLATE, A delicious romantic 1993 film (114 min) will be shown with our brand new speakers, stands, and cables.

Like Water for Chocolate will be a "feast for the soul." Set in a Mexican border town around 1910, Roger Ebert described the 1993 film as an "intense world of passion and romance, with a little comedy and a lot of quail, garlic, honey, chilies, mole, cilantro, rose petals and corn meal." See the menu for our dinner feast below.

Date: Friday, Feb. 11

Time: Dinner at 7:15. 30-40 dinners will be prepared. Arrive early--first come first served--so you will not be disappointed. Film at 8:00.

Where: The Town Hall

Cost: Film: Free to Film Society Members. $5 a person or $10 a family.

Film is not appropriate for children.

Guest Chefs, Garrett Park's own Victor Vergara and Gabriela De la Garza, will be preparing a fantastic Mexican meal. The menu is ambitious, unique and will be very popular.

MENU

Sampler Plate

Mole Poblano - Black and Green - The best thing to happen to chicken. A chocolate sauce with spices

Mexican Rice - Authentic. Our staple done right - it is superb

Nopal - Cactus, our national vegetable (subject to availability).

Chiles En Nogada - The Rolls Royce of stuffed peppers created as a presidential dish in the 1800's

Pozole - A chicken stock with pork and hominy topped with oregano, lettuce and lemon (very Mexican)

Single Items

Pastel Chabela - The cake which brought tears in the movie. (Suzanne Grefsheim kindly agreed to bake it)

Chocolate Mexicano - What we drink in cold nights in Mexico

Mexican Beer and maybe Tequila. Popcorn too!

Prices for sampler plates and single items are listed on the poster at the Post Office.
